Per G.S. Singhvi, C.J.

This appeal is directed against order dated 28-9-2006 passed by the learned Single Judge in Writ Petition No.19144 of 2005.

On going through the paper book of the appeal, we found that the appellants have chosen to selectively produce some pleadings and documents forming part of the record of the writ petition. This is wholly unacceptable. The members of the Division Bench are not expected to shuffle through the entire record of the writ petition and connect the papers for the purpose of appreciating the contentions raised in the appeal.

With the above observations, the appeal is dismissed with liberty to the appellants to file fresh appeal against the order of the learned

Single Judge.

As a sequel to dismissal of the writ appeal, W.A.M.P.No.1010 of 2007 filed by the appellants for interim relief is also dismissed.
